The Ranch Chalet Park Scotland

The park has a lot of wood- and moorland but has also rough grazing which is used for our farm consisting of Highland Cows and sheep but also ponies, deer, ducks and geese.

Our own Loch Katrina - for excellent trout fishing - is within walking distance from the lodges.

Central in the Scottish Highlands you find RANCH CHALET PARK DELNY. A holiday park consisting of twenty lodges of three different types (Delny Highland Lodges, Ranch Lodges and Burnside Lodges) and Ernie's Lodge. The park is situated in a wooded area about 26 miles north of Inverness the capital of the Scottish Highlands en close to the Cromarty Firth.

Scotland is an ideal country for spending a holiday. Of all the beautiful parts of the "land of the pipes" the highlands have undoubtedly the most dramatic scenery.

The varied landscapes are surely overwhelming. On foot or by car, again and again surprising discoveries are experienced. Because the scenery is unimaginable. Choosing to holiday in the Scottish Highlands means to quiet down, to find peace and quiet.

Having been in the Highlands makes it unavoidable to return.

The park is managed by Eddy, Corrie, Mieke and Ernst Robberts, a Dutch family, who came to Scotland in the late seventies. All members of the family are in one way or another concerned with the running of the park and this means a strong personal interest.
